JILL F. RODILA, MD

VITO J. GUARIO, OD
KELLI F. WOLPER, OD

On behalf of the doctors at Aker Kasten Eye Center we would like to welcome you as a new patient, and thank you for choosing us for your eye care needs. We have enclosed an information packet regarding our Center and the services we provide for you to review at your leisure. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call us.

We request that you please bring the following items with you to your first appointment:

1. The NEW PATIENT FORM.
2. Your INSURANCE CARDS and a PHOTO ID CARD.
3. A LIST OF MEDICATIONS AND DAILY DOSAGE you are currently taking.

If you are considering cataract surgery, we will be unable to perform necessary testing unless you discontinue wearing your contact lenses according to the following time parameters:

Gas permeable lenses – 2 weeks
Hard lenses – 2 weeks
Soft contact lenses – 1 week

Our office accepts Medicare assignment. The 20% co-payment will be collected at the time of your office visit. If you participate in MediGap, your supplementary insurance will automatically be submitted for you by your insurance company.

Again, we welcome you as a new patient and look forward to meeting you!

Summary of the Florida Patient's Bill of Rights and Responsibilities

Florida law requires that your health care provider or health care facility recognize your rights while you are receiving medical care and that you respect the health care provider or health care facility's right to expect certain behavior on the part of patients. You may request a copy of the full text of this law from your health care provider or health care facility.

Summary of Patient Rights

A patient has the right to be treated with courtesy and respect, with appreciation of his or her individual dignity, and with protection of his or her need for privacy.

A patient has the right to a prompt and reasonable response to questions and requests.

A patient has the right to know who is providing medical services and who is responsible for his or her care.

A patient has the right to know what patient support services are available, including whether an interpreter is available if he or she does not speak English.

A patient has the right to know what rules and regulations apply to his or her conduct.

A patient has the right to be given by the health care provider information concerning diagnosis, planned course of treatment, alternatives, risks, and prognosis.

A patient has the right to refuse any treatment, except as otherwise provided by law.

A patient has the right to be given, upon request, full information and necessary counseling on the availability of known financial resources for his or her care.

A patient who is eligible for Medicare has the right to know, upon request and in advance of treatment, whether the health care provider or health care facility accepts the Medicare assignment rate.

A patient has the right to receive, upon request, prior to treatment, a reasonable estimate of charges for medical care.

A patient has the right to receive a copy of a reasonably clear and understandable, itemized bill and, upon request, to have the charges explained.

A patient has the right to impartial access to medical treatment or accommodations, regardless of race, national origin, religion, handicap, or source of payment.

A patient has the right to treatment for any emergency medical condition that will deteriorate from failure to provide treatment.

A patient has the right to know if medical treatment is for purposes of experimental research and to give his or her consent or refusal to participate in such experimental research.

A patient has the right to express grievances regarding any violation of his or her rights, as stated in Florida law, through the grievance procedure of the health care provider or health care facility which served him or her and to the appropriate state licensing agency.

Summary of Patient Responsibilities

A patient is responsible for providing to the health care provider, to the best of his or her knowledge, accurate and complete information about present complaints, past illnesses, hospitalizations, medications, existence of advance directives and other matters relating to his or her health.

A patient is responsible for reporting unexpected changes in his or her condition to the health care provider.

A patient is responsible for reporting to the health care provider whether he or she comprehends a contemplated course of action and what is expected of him or her.

A patient is responsible for following the treatment plan recommended by the health care provider.

A patient is responsible for his or her actions if he or she refuses treatment or does not follow the health care provider's instructions.

A patient is responsible for assuring that the financial obligations of his or her health care are fulfilled as promptly as possible.

A patient is responsible for following health care facility rules and regulations affecting patient care and conduct.

A patient is responsible for keeping appointments and, when he or she is unable to do so for any reason, for notifying the health care provider or health care facility.
